

Embedding Video in Desire2Learn (BrightSpace)

You can add one or many video segments to your Desire2Learn course pages. Begin by adding a module.

Once you have added a module, click the 'Add a description' box.

A text editor will open and you will need to click the 'HTML' button at the bottom right of the text editor window.

DETAILS: The city of New Brunswick has a world class pilot trail that dates back to the Second World War. From the Flying Training School to the 15 Wing Museum, more than 1200 pilots have trained here. A decade later, the first 15 Wing Museum was established. In the 1980's, 15 Wing Museum became a volunteer instructor formation, the beginning of what is now Snowbirds, a Canadian military aerobatics team. In the 1980's, 15 Wing Museum became a barrier training formation, the first of its kind in Canada, and the edge of aviation training.

Copy the embed code from the text box. You can adjust the height and width before copying the code.

Paste the code from the OnCore website into the HTML editor in the Desire2Learn website and click 'Save'.

The screenshot shows an "HTML Source Editor" window. The window has a "Word wrap" checkbox checked. The text area contains the embed code: `<iframe width="648" height="363" frameborder="0" src="https://www.on-core.ca/embed?segment=OC712532950& width=648& height=363" scrolling="no"></iframe>`. A red oval highlights the code. At the bottom of the window are "Save" and "Cancel" buttons. The background shows a portion of a website interface with navigation links like "Calendar", "Email", "ePortfolio", "Locker", "Community", and "Online".

You may see a blocked content message. Click 'Allow'.

Your video should now be displayed.
